Library Scavenger Hunt (4/17/24)

This activity aims to familiarize students with the library environment through an engaging scavenger hunt.

Readathon (April 18-19, 2024)

Students are encouraged to read as many Accelerated Reader (AR) books as possible and take quizzes during these days. The class with the highest number of participants will earn a pizza party. Additionally, incentives will be awarded to the top three students who read the most books and most words during the event

Read Aloud (April 23-25, 2024)

Volunteers will read aloud in classrooms and visit elementary schools and daycare centers to promote literacy and engage young audiences.

Maker Day at the Library (April 29, 2024)

Open exclusively to 8th-grade students, this event will introduce participants to various tools and equipment available in the library, offering hands-on learning opportunities.

If you have any inquiries, please see Mrs. Janet Sablan

READY SET LIBRARY!

NATIONAL LIBRARY SPIRIT WEEK

APRIL 8-12, 2024

Monday: Team up for Libraries!

Students will visit the library wearing their favorite team (sports or superhero) shirts.

Tuesday: Calling all characters!

Visit the library dressed as a favorite book or movie character.

Wednesday: Pajamas All Day

Get cozy! Come to the library in your pajamas. (Dress code policy applies.)

Thursday: Book Buddy Day

Team up with your friends, visit the library together, and read side by side.

Friday: Fun in the sun!

Come to the library dressed for the beach: sunglasses, big hats, flip-flops, floaties, and Hawaiian prints. (Dress code policy applies.)

The first five participants to visit the library every day will get a small token of appreciation.
